COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 9.

CONSOLS in London are still quoted at 100⅛ and French Rentes at 119¾, but according to Reuter Four per cent. Rupee Paper is ⅜ higher at 85½, Fours-and-a-half unchanged at 91⅜. For Fours, however, there is practically no market in London, and we are inclined to think our own correspondent's quotation of 91¼ for Fours-and-a-half the more reliable.

In the General Produce markets there is no change, and in metals the only movement noticed is an advance of £1 per ton in Copper Braziers.

The Liverpool Cotton market yesterday, Reuter says, closed strong, sales 12,000 bales, of which 700 were Surats, but according to private advices, Americans were higher whilst Surats were unchanged. This is borne out by the fact that Americans are quoted 1-16d. higher whilst Surats are unaltered.

In New York yesterday ready Mid-Uplands were unchanged at 11 1-16 cents, whilst September shipment was 11 points lower at 10·67 cents per lb The receipts at the U. S. ports to date are as follows :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Wednesday's Receipts	3,000	2,900	1,100
Five days' Receipts	20,000	13,000	4,700
Total since 1st September.....	5,540,400	4,787,000	4,399,200

EXCHANGE.—Council drafts having gone lower than was expected, the market to-day opened quiet at a decline of 1-32d., which was increased during the day to 1-16d. per rupee. The extent of business done has been small ; as a matter of fact there are now very few bills offering, and unless some outside influence intervenes, further decline seems very probable. Possibly the renewal of the conference on the 30th instant may induce some temporary firmness, but we said some time ago that we considered the decline only beginning when rates were nearly 2 per cent. higher than they are now, and we are still of opinion that the fall has only run but a portion of its course. It is useless attempting to say what point the rupee may go to ; but if the Conference is to come to nothing—as in all probability will be the case—it is not venturing very much to say that the further drop will not be a matter of 1-16 or even ⅛d., but possibly of a pence in the rupee. Closing quotations are :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 5-8d.	per rupee.
Do. telegraphic	1s. 7 9-16d.	"
Do. 3 months' sight	1s. 7 23-32d.	"
Credits, 3 " " ..	1s. 7 13-16d.	"
Documents, 3 " " ..	1s. 7 27-32d.	"
Francs, 3 " " ..	2·09⅞f.	"

On Calcutta there is no change in rates.

GOVERNMENT SECURITIES have undergone some material fluctuations during the day, the speculative element having it for the time being entirely their own way. For Fours Rs. 104 15-16, and even Rs. 105, we hear, has been done, but at the close the rate has receded to Rs. 104 13-16, whilst Fours-and-a-half are at Rs. 112. There is still the possibility of even higher than these figures being touched—in fact, we think, such an event very probable,—but a very simple calculation will show that the interest accruing will give nothing like a fair return to an ordinary investor, and this, after all, is the basis on which Government Paper must eventually rule.

SHARES continue firm but with few alterations in value. Bank shares are unaltered throughout In Press companies the only movements are an advance of Rs. 25 in Fort and Rs. 5 in Sind. Spinning and Weaving Mill shares are firm, and generally Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 higher.

In COTTON business for export is in a great measure suspended owing to the setting in of the rains. To cover local sales, however, there is some little buying, especially of Good Dhollera, of which supplies are small, and we hear of Rs. 188 having been paid for well up selection, which is far above the home value.

SEEDS and WHEAT are unaltered.

FREIGHTS are very dull, and for Liverpool by steam we now quote 32s. 6d. to 33s. 9d. For other ports is no change to notice, but there are few engagements making.

PIECE-GOODS are steadier for future delivery, but in ready goods there is next to nothing doing, and prices are unaltered.

COALS are quiet at previous values.

FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1881.

WE have before us the latest Educational Reports of the Punjab and of the Central Provinces ; and a comparison of the two in some of their particulars may perhaps be the best way of appreciating both. We are tempted to begin by saying that both are got up in a manner much inferior to the neat workman-like style in which our Central Press now turns out the Bombay Report of Public Instruction. We notice a good deal in both of these Reports about the exertions that appear to have been made to bring about a sort of millenium of identical "forms" from schools and colleges throughout the Empire. We are sceptical of the immense advantage which appears to be so confidently expected from assimilation of that kind. It would be a different thing if anybody ever read the "forms" which are now almost (for there are refractory provinces) identical. But if we are to be uniform we might as well be thorough, and have the Reports in which these forms are enshrined or buried, published in a form which would enable us to bind them and put them away together.

The Punjab report gives the history "of the new classification," and apparently claims the credit of it for that province. The question, it seems, had been under consideration for some years, and the "forms" which have been introduced for the first time during the year under report into both the Punjab and the Central Provinces are due to a Committee which began "to be allowed to remain at Simla" for the purpose so far back as 1875. We are not told how long the Committee sat ; but as this is 1881, we should not wonder if there were at least five yearly Sessions to consider the matter. We are not sure that the present system of assembling Committees at Simla during this season is a wise one. We feel at least pretty certain that identical "forms" for schools would have been knocked off somehow in a less time than six years if the Committee had been instructed to meet yearly in Bombay in May. However this is by the way.

We abbreviate the following description of the "new classification" from the Punjab Report. All educational institutions subject to Government control or inspection—and the Indian Educational Department takes note of no others—are either (a) Government, or (b) aided, or (c) unaided. The grounds of this distinction we need not cite. We can recommend the case of the further treatment of "schools" as distinct from "colleges" in this "new classification" to any one who may be preparing a Manual of Logic for the Indian student, and who may be in want of an example of cross and sub-division. In the first place schools are general or special, according as they are for general education or for special and technical training. Let us follow the fortunes of the former class. They are in the first place secondary or primary. "Under the head of Secondary Education are included high and middle schools." "Schools for primary education are termed primary schools," just, as we may remind the reader, as gentlemen who perform archdiaconal functions are termed arch-deacons. When we have added that primary schools may be either English or Vernacular, according as English does or does not form part of their regular curriculum, we think we have given the reader the chief points of this new classification, for which we and they shall wish all the success and influence it is expected to have. We have been quoting from the Punjaub Report in which this question has a prominent place. But the Central Provinces Report also leads off by saying that the "new returns" have been introduced and have been of "unmixed good." Later on in that Report we discover that the same "new returns" have made it quite impossible to compare this year's results with those of last year, which perhaps explains Mr. Browning's enthusiasm about them.

The chapter on University education in the Punjab Report is largely devoted to the contro

TELEGRAMS.

WAR PREPARATIONS IN AFGHANISTAN.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

ALLAHABAD, JUNE 9.

It is reported from Herat, from a trustworthy source, that Ayoub has disbanded three Herati regiments. The force now collected at Puli Malan consists of two and a half regiments of Kandaharis and Kabulis and four regiments of Heratis, with artillery.

The Sartip Nur Mahomed has been left in Herat as master and send on sowars to Puli Malan. Ayoub continues to send letters to the people in Kandahar. The force now at Girishk is believed to amount to two infantry and one cavalry regiments, two guns, and 1,000 Khasadars. If it be true that Sirdars Hashim and Hasan Khan left Farrah immediately after their arrival, they should now be in Zemindawar, probably at Naozoi, where Hashim Khan has property; but unless they are supported by a large gathering of Alizai and Barakzai tribes, they are not likely to attack the Girishk garrison till Ayoub arrives. It is not certain whether the latter has left Herat as yet.

From Kandahar it is reported that many merchants, alarmed at the prospect of more fighting, and perhaps a siege, are beginning to send their property on to Quetta. It is said that Ameer Abdul Rahman has written to Sirdar Shums-ud-din Khan that he will shortly start for Kandahar, and that Mahomed Ishak Khan will simultaneously march on Herat from Turkestan.

The traffic with Kabul is at a standstill. The Andari and Taraki Ghilzais are reported to be in an unsettled state.

(FROM THE PRESS COMMISSIONER.)

SIMLA, JUNE 9.

The report of the fight at Girishk is confirmed by later letters. It is said that the irregular infantry on the Ameer's side were at first driven back by the Herati force, which was afterwards broken up by the cavalry and the regular infantry, and suffered severely.

His Excellency the Governor leaves Mahableshwar on the 11th inst. for Gunesh Khind, Poona.

The Governor is expected to pay another visit to Kolhapur shortly, when the young Maharajah will be installed on attaining his majority.

Here is a ridiculous suggestion. A medal for the Waziri promenade! Was ever anything more absurd? Quoth the Pioneer:—"A good deal of hard work was done by the troops in Waziristan; and, if there was but little fighting, that was by no means due to a want of warlike spirit on the part of officers and men. So an application will doubtless be made, it it has not been made already, for a medal; but we are inclined to doubt whether one will be given." If a medal is to be given to every soldier with a warlike spirit, we should hope every man in the army would be entitled to it.

During the absence of Sir Frank Souter on privilege leave, Mr. Vincent acts as Commissioner, and Mr. J. G. Smith as Deputy Commissioner, of Police.

It is stated that the 12th Bengal Cavalry from Jhelum will relieve the 16th Bengal Cavalry at Allahabad next autumn. The 16th will probably stay a year at Jhelum, and then go on to Quetta.

His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to declare the port of Panjim in the Goa Territory as a warehousing port for the purposes of the Sea Customs Act, 1878.

Under the provisions of Section XV. of Act IV. of 1873, "The Steam-Vessel Survey Amendment Act," His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to appoint a Board at Aden, composed of the following officers, to conduct examinations of engineers of steamers:—The Port Officer, Aden, as President. The Engineer of the I. G. Steamer stationed for the time being at Aden, as Member.

The latest convert to the bi-metallic theory, according to Simla gossip, transmitted through the Pioneer, is Major Evelyn Baring, the Finance Minister. "It may not be generally known that the Executive Council of the Governor-General have been of late tempering their toilsome task of army reorganization with mild arguments on the currency question."

We regret to hear that Brigadier-General Hogg, Quartermaster-General of the Bombay Army, will not return to India at the expiration of his present leave on account of continued ill-health. Lieutenant-Colonel Colvin, who was Officiating Deputy Quartermaster-General, has gone to join his regiment at Bellary; and Major Adam, from Mhow, is to be transferred in Colonel Colvin's place to Poona. Major Jopp would, as the senior, have been appointed; but General Hume has particularly desired that he may remain at Quetta.

It having been frequently brought to notice that the practice of making changes in the timing of trains, and of issuing railway time and fare tables at irregular intervals, has caused serious inconvenience to the travelling public, who cannot follow every change, the Government of India have decided that, both in the interests of the public and of the railways concerned, all changes in the timing of passenger trains and the issue of the time and fare tables should be made as seldom as possible; and should, at all events for the present, not be considered oftener than once a quarter, viz., with effect from the first day of January, April, July, and October. Early instructions to this effect will be given to the Agents or Managers of the various railways.

Now that so much attention is being paid to musketry, the Pioneer thinks "it is worthwhile noticing once more that the boy-volunteers of Bishop Cotton's School, Simla, beat the whole of the British and Native Regiments in India at volley-firing. Their figure of merit was unusually high, and their shooting was marked by a precision which was astonishing. They have been carefully trained to use the Martini-Henry in a style that is very gratifying. Recently they competed with the detachments of the 9th Foot and 2nd Goorkhas at Simla in skirmishing exercise, and there again they distinguished themselves. The chattiss, which are supposed to represent human heads, showed that the boys made more hits than the regulars, and their mode of skirmishing could scarcely have been proved upon. Every encouragement should be given to boys becoming experts with the rifle, as familiarity with one's weapon is half the battle in shooting. India offers peculiar advantages in this direction, as there is never any difficulty about 'rifle-ranges'"—except in Bombay, our contemporary might have added. It would be a great thing for the Bombay Volunteers if a more convenient range could be obtained; but it is difficult to see how it can be managed. Coorla is nearly an hours' journey by rail, and is, besides, such an ill-smelling spot that there is always a repugnance to visit it.

The contract for the construction of the embankment for the two lines of State Railways—the Central Bengal Railway from Dum-Dum to Barasat and from Ranaghat to Bongong—has been given by the Government of Bengal to Messrs. Burn and Co. The works are to be put in hand at once, and Messrs. Burn and Co. have been fortunate enough to secure the services of Mr. E. Sturmer, late Assistant Engineer to the Calcutta Port Commissioners, as their agent for the Central Bengal Railway contract. Mr. Sturmer has resigned his appointment under the Port Commissioners.

Popular belief to the contrary notwithstanding, there are (remarks the Englishman) probably few countries more poorly supplied with fruit suitable to the European palate than India. For more than two months of the year, it is true, we have the mango; but, though a good mango of a really first rate variety is a thing to be remembered, the proportion of this kind is extremely small and the inferior sorts are to average Europeans simply untastable. Then, for a very brief season, a month at the outside, we have the lichi, a really fine fruit, which, however, soon palls on the taste; and for a few weeks we get peaches, so poor in quality that they are probably eaten rather for the memories they excite than for any other reason. Oranges, of a poor sort, and the tipari, a tolerable fruit, about complete the list. The natives, who will eat almost any mango with gusto, who regard the jack fruit as a choice luxury, and to whom even the rough and acrid jamun does not come amiss, are somewhat better off. Yet, looking to the success with which, in spite of rough treatment and long delays, Kabul grapes and apples, even in the pre-railway days, were transported to the remotest parts of India, it seems next to certain that in these days of rapid transit, Australia, if not Europe, might supply us with some of its choicest fruits. That it has not already done so is, we suspect, attributable more to want of enterprise than to any other cause. Our great mercantile houses are too fully occupied with such grand ventures as piece-goods, indigo, and jute to trouble themselves about such a bagatelle as apples and peaches, the selection and package of which, moreover, demand an amount of pains which they might not unnaturally feel to be disproportionate to the stake.

The Egyptian Gazette says that a statue has recently been found in a mound on the Egyptian Government Railway line. It is believed to be 4568 years old, and if this is confirmed it will probably be one of the oldest known statues in the world. This statue is about being removed to Cairo, and we hope some of our antiquarian correspondents there will examine it and give their opinion respecting this interesting antique.

Life hears "on excellent authority, that the delay in regard to the 'allocation' of the vacant Garter is due to something like a misunderstanding between the Queen and Mr. Gladstone. Her Majesty has, it seems, the presumption to think that she has a constitutional right to an opinion of her own on this subject."

On Saturday, May 14, at the Borough Grounds, Preston, W. Cummings, of Paisley, and W. Duddle, of Preston, ran a mile level for 110*l.*, the former laying 60*l.* to 50*l.* on himself. Notwithstanding the wretched weather, several thousands of spectators assembled, and great interest generally was taken in the event. Cummings started a hot favourite, as much as 4 to 1 being laid on him. The ground measured about three laps to the mile. Cummings chose the outside station, and on the start taking place Duddle went ahead and took the lead until about two laps and a half had been traversed, but Cummings then put on steam, and on making for home he came away from his opponent and won anyhow by quite half a dozen yards. The time was given as 4 min. 16 1-5th sec., but this must be taken cum grane salis. The fastest time for a mile up to the present is 4 min. 17½ seconds, which was recorded when Lang and Richards ran a dead-heat at Manchester in 1865. Lang once ran a mile down hill in 4 min. 2 secs.

With regard to the subject of the treaties of commerce and the question of specific or ad valorem duties which divide the French and English Governments, M. Leroy-Beaulieu, in the Debats, remarks that, even admitting the charges that ad valorem duties open a door to fraud by false declarations, they still offer great advantages over specific duties. The latter present the inconvenience of instability, as a duty of 60f. on iron, for example, which at first might represent only 20 per cent., could become 30 or 40 per cent. as progress in the process of manufacture diminished the cost of production. Ad valorem duties would permit of a comparison being made between the old tariff and the new; and as to the possibility of a fraud it was not proved that specific duties, with hundreds of categories, would not be open to the same objection. He concludes that if specific duties are an obstacle to the negotiations, the French Government should not hesitate to return to the ad valorem system, which is preferable for many reasons. The Parlement also admits that the specific duties are an aggravation of the high duties voted by the Chambers, but it doubts if the Chambers would now ratify a treaty of commerce based on any other system. The only issue it can see for this difficulty is in the French Government consenting to the same reductions of duty beyond the difference of 25 per cent between the present treaty tariff and the new general tariff, England, on her side, making all the concessions possible. That journal further insists on the necessity for the two Governments coming to an understanding immediately, in order that the treaty may be ratified in the present Session.

A Bill, backed by Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Ashley, amending the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act of 1854, with respect to the measurement of tonnage, has been introduced. It consists practically of only one clause, which sets forth that as doubts have arisen as to the intention of the Act of 1854 with respect to deductions from the register tonnage of ships, "the intent of the said Act of 1854, and the Acts "amending the same, is that no deduction to be made from the register or gross tonnage of a ship, as the case may be, shall be allowed in respect of anything which has not been added or included upon the ascertainment of such register or gross tonnage, as the case may be; and the said Acts shall be construed and applied accordingly in all future cases."

Holloways Pills.—There is nothing in the whole "Materia Medica" like these Medicaments for the certainty of their action in lumbago, sciatica, the dolorous and all flying or settled pains in the nerves and muscles. Diseases of this nature originate in bad blood and depraved humours, and until these are corrected, there can be no permanent cure. The ordinary remedies afford but temporary relief, and in the end always disappoint the sufferer. Holloway's Ointment penetrates the human system as salt penetrates meat, and the Pills greatly assist and accelerate its operation by clearing away all obstructions, and giving tone to the system generally. The prophylactic virtues of Holloway's remedies stand unrivalled.

THE JAMNAGAR POSTAL FRAUD CASE.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

RAJKOT, JUNE 7.

This is a prosecution instituted at the instance of the Postmaster-General by Mr. Chandoolal Mathuradas, and arises out of a fraud in reference to an insured banghy parcel sent from Bhuj in February last by one Moolji Parmanand to his friend Jadowjee Khatao of Khambalia. The accused are—(1) Dadabhai Temulji, late postmaster at Jamnagar, who stands charged with criminal breach of trust as a public servant under section 409 of the Indian Penal Code and section 48 of Act XIV. of 1866; (2) Goswami Vrajeshji Vrajnakji Maharaj, who is charged under section 414 of the Indian Penal Code with assisting in concealing and disposing of stolen property, to which a charge under sections 409 and 109 of the Indian Penal Code, that of abetment of criminal breach of trust by a public servant, was added on the day of the trial; (3) Callianjee Pranjivan, who is charged under sections 407 and 109 of the Indian Penal Code; (4) Jadowji Gopalji, who is charged with destroying a document to prevent its being produced in evidence under section 204 of the Indian Penal Code; and (5) Dana Canjee under section 414. The case by itself is not of any particular importance; but the position and character of the second accused, who is one of the spiritual heads of the Vaishnavs, a wealthy and influential section of the native community, has invested it with considerable importance in the eyes of the Vaishnavs, large numbers of whom every day flock to the court-house evincing a devotion towards the Maharaja worthy of a better cause. Mr. H. A. Wadia, barrister-at-law, appeared for accused No. 1; Messrs. Tyabjee and Pandit, barrister-at-law, instructed by Messrs. Jefferson, Bhaishunker, and Dinsha, for accused No. 2; Mr. J. M. Dias, a local pleader, for accused No. 3; Mr. Gourishunker Dyalji for accused No. 4. The 5th accused was not defended by any professional gentleman.

The trial commenced on the 6th instant, the Court consisting of Mr. H. F. Aston, Judicial Assistant to the Political Agent, Kattywar, president; and Abhesing Jibhaj, Darbar of Lordhiker, Rao Saheb Gopairao Bulvant, Nayadish of Jamnagar, Jivanram Ghelabhai, Kathiari of Koatda, and Narayenrao Balcrishna, Sir Nayadish of Jamnagar, as members, and sitting at the High Court of Criminal Justice in Kattywar. Before the prisoners were called upon to plead, Mr. Wadia objected to the members of the Court sitting as assessors, on the ground that both of them were officials of the Durbar of Jamnagar, where the case had excited a widespread feeling, and that one of them had partially tried this very case. The President overruled the objection, remarking that the gentlemen objected to sat in Court not as assessors, but as members of the Court. All the accused, except No. 2, pleaded not guilty. Mr. Wadia, on behalf of accused No. 1, took a preservation to the ground that the court had no jurisdiction to try his client, as he was not a subject of Her Majesty the Queen, and the offence with which he was charged was admittedly committed in foreign territory, the court of which had exclusive jurisdiction to try the offence, offering at the same time to argue the question of jurisdiction if necessary at once. The President remarked that the Jamnagar Court, having waived its jurisdiction to try the case, and the Political Agent having agreed to refer it to him, the Court was fully competent to try Mr. Tyabji's client, adding that if Mr. Tyabji did not recognise the competency of the Court, the Court must refuse to recognise the learned counsel and finally declining to hear any argument on the question of the Court's jurisdiction, that question having been, as he said, already decided by independent authority. Mr. Tyabji's note should not be taken of his objection, and at the suggestion of the Court pleaded not guilty under protest, requesting at the same time to be furnished with a copy of the correspondence that had passed between the Nagar Durbar and the Political Agent anent the constitution of the Court.

The Public Prosecutor, Mr. Bhowanidas Nandmal, then opened the case for the prosecution. He said that on 21st February last one Mooljee Parmanand, of Bhuj, had entrusted a insured banghy parcel containing valuable gold and pearl ornaments, addressed to Jadowji Khatao of Khambalia. The bangy was received at the Rajcote post office on the 24th, and despatched thence the same day and in good condition to Jamnagar, where it reached on the 25th. The post-master of Jamnagar, without any good reason, detained the bangy from the 26th to the 28th February, and sent it on to Khambalia on the 1st March, where it arrived at 7 p.m. the same day. On weighing the bangy the post-master at Khambalia found that the actual weight was short of the weight mentioned in the register list accompanying the parcel by 12 tolas; the seals, too, appearing suspicious, he opened the bangy on the morning of the morning and opened the bangy in his presence, when it was proved that instead of the ornaments which the addresse expected, the bangy contained 144 dhaboo coins of the Janeshi currency. Thereupon the post-master of Khambalia made a report of the matter to his official superior, Mr. Chandoolal Mathuradas, who came to Khambalia to inquire into the matter on the 11th March, and on inquiry he found that the bangy in question had been forwarded from the Rajkot Post Office in good time. He then proceeded to Jamnagar on the 14th, and ascertained that the accused were concerned in the tampering with the bangy. Mr. Chandoolal then communicated with the Dewan of Nagar, and the latter made over the case for preliminary investigation to Mr. Jayshanker Rattonji, one of the magistrates of the place. The Magistrate, after certain proceedings, committed the accused to the Sessions on the evidence adduced by the prosecution. The Prosecutor would prove that the fraud had been perpetrated between the 25th and 28th February last, that accused No. 1 was in embarrassed circumstances, and between the 14th and 28th February had entertained with the Dewan of Nagar. After Mr. Chandoolal had made a report embodying the result of his inquiry, accused No. 1 went to Mr. Bragara, of Nagar, and requested him to keep certain ornaments he then had with him in his safe custody, alleging that he had received them from Bombay patawala, and it was not safe for him to keep them in his own house, as his superior was coming to inquire into certain frauds in reference to a bangy, and might search his house. So saying he brought wrong, Mr. Bragara kept the ornaments, but as soon as he learnt that some bangy had been tampered with and that accused No. 1 was suspected of being concerned in it, he sent the ornaments to the Dewan of Nagar with a letter stating the circumstances under which he had received them. It would appear that accused No. 1 and Raghoo took the bangy to accused No. 2, who caused No. 4 to advance certain money to them. So he were advanced on the night of the 27th February, Rs. 500 on the morning of the 28th, and Rs. 885 the day following. No. 4 entered the several payments in his book and took Ragoo's receipts for the same. The page containing these entries was subsequently torn by No. 4 at the instigation of Nos. 2 and 3. Accused No. 2 stated to the Magistrate of Nagar that he had only caused certain advances to be made to No. 1, and denied having had anything to do with the bangy from Bombay. Nor did he then mention anything of a sum of Rs. 700 advanced by himself. Accused No. 1, after first denying all complicity in the fraud respecting the bangy, subsequently made a full disclosure of all the circumstances relating to the offence, naming the tailor boy who had resewn the torn bangy, which, however, he has since retracted. No. 3 caused a gold dora to be melted by No. 5, took part in tearing the page from the book of No. 4, went to call the tailor boy, and was present when the bangy was sewn by him. No. 2 afterwards put in a yad in the Nagar Durbar, wherein he of his own accord for the first time mentioned two ornaments sent by him to Bombay to be disposed of there.

The evidence for the prosecution went to show that the prisoner, on the forenoon of the day in question, finding his wife Bhagirthee asleep in the room of the chawl they occupied at Cuppod Gully, entered it, fastened the door, and inflicted several wounds on the person of the woman. Her cries for help brought her sister and other neighbours occupying the adjoining rooms of the chawl to the scene, when the prisoner opened the door of his room and ran away, but was arrested by the policeman doing duty at that locality. The injured woman was removed to the J. J. Hospital for treatment. His Worship committed the prisoner to take his trial at the next Criminal Sessions of the High Court.

MESSRS. THACKER AND COMPANY, LIMITED.

The third ordinary general meeting of shareholders was held on the company's premises yesterday, Mr. F. Mathew presiding. The following is the directors' report:—

The directors have again to congratulate you upon the satisfactory progress of the company's business and the result of the year's working as shown in the accounts now presented to you. The business done in the twelve months exceeds by more than 20 per cent. the amount done in the previous year, and as the working expenses have not materially increased, the net profit is considerably larger, amounting, after the usual reduction has been made for depreciation of stock and furniture, and writing off all debts considered bad or doubtful to Rs. 27,227-12-2, out of which, the directors propose to declare a dividend of 15 per cent., which with the secretary's commission, will absorb Rs. 16,500, and to carry the balance of Rs. 10,727-12-2 to the reserve fund, which will then reach Rs. 23,512-7-3. The reserve fund is in use and is required for the purposes of the company's business. Negociations are in progress for a more commodious building for the efficient carrying on of the business, but as these are not complete, the directors can only at present say they hope the result will be to provide more suitable accommodation than the premises now occupied afford. Two of the directors, Mr. Kemp and Mr. Martin Wood, retire by rotation. Mr. Kemp is eligible for re-election, but Mr. Wood having proceeded to England, does not seek re-election, and it will be necessary to appoint another director in his place.

The Chairman, after briefly remarking on the favourable nature of the report, proposed that the report and accounts now submitted be and are hereby approved and adopted.

This being seconded by Mr. N. Byramjee Jeejeebhoy was carried unanimously.

The following propositions were also unanimously agreed to:—

It was proposed by Mr. D. S. Kemp, and seconded by Mr. W. C. Taylor, that a dividend of 15 percent. be declared payable on and after June 15th, and that the balance of profit, Rs. 10,727-12-2, be added to the reserve fund and invested in the company's business, or in such other way as the directors may think fit.

It was proposed by Mr. N. Byramjee Jeejeebhoy, and seconded by Mr. W. C. Taylor, that Mr. Kemp be re-elected a director.

Mr. Nanabhoy, in moving the proposition, said that Mr. Kemp was a very valuable member of the board of directors, and thought that they would be doing justice to the shareholders by re-electing him.

It was proposed by Mr. A. C. Walker, and seconded by Mr. P. S. Setna, that Dr. H. Cook's appointment by the board as director be approved and confirmed.

It was proposed by the Chairman, and seconded by Mr. Sadashew Balkrishnajee Dhotre, that Mr. J. O'Connell and Mr. D. H. Wadia be appointed auditors.

The Chairman, in placing the resolution before the meeting, expressed his great regret at the loss they had sustained by the death at Bulsar of Mr. Moor house, who was the auditor of the company.

On the motion of Mr. Nanabhoy Byramjee a vote of thanks was tendered to the Chairman. The meeting then separated.

H. H. THE NIZAM'S STATE RAILWAY.

ADVERTISING AT RAILWAY STATIONS.

THE PROPRIETOR of the Bombay Gazette Press, having leased from the NIZAM'S STATE RAILWAY Company the exclusive right of advertising at all the Railway Stations belonging to the Company, is prepared to contract with parties desirous of posting notices or advertisements on the lines.
The Cantonment of SECUNDRABAD, as is well known, contains the largest military garrison in India—a garrison comprising over 5,000 British and native troops. Contiguous to it is the Cantonment of BOLARUM garrisoned by two regiments and one Battery of the Hydrabad Contingent, all officered by Europeans. South of Secundrabad, about 4 miles, are the suburbs of Hydrabad, containing the Nizam's regular troops, about 5,000 in number, officered mostly by Europeans—besides a large civil population. It would manifestly be advantageous to firms to advertise at the stations on the above railway, the most important of which are SECUNDRABAD, HYDRABAD, GANGAWARUM and TANDUR.
The announcements may be in English or in any of the NATIVE LANGUAGES.
The advantages which Railway Stations present as a means of bringing intimations of all kinds before the public have been demonstrated in England by the extensive use which is made by Advertisers, of every station, great and small, along every one in the United Kingdom.
INSURANCE COMPANIES, SHIPPING COMPANIES, HOTELKEEPERS, MERCHANTS, TRADERS and others who wish to force their business on the notice of the public, all alike value the privilege of Railway Station Advertising.
There is no reason why the privilege should not be also specially valuable to Advertisers in India. Looking to the great and increasing number of Native Railway Passengers on the two trunk lines of Western India, Native Merchants, Traders, &c., seeing that they have the privilege of advertising in their own language, would find the publication of their announcements at Railway Stations an infallible means of extending their business.
Advertisers can select the Stations, at which they wish their Placards posted, and may advertise for any period that may be agreed on. The charges have been fixed on an extremely moderate scale to encourage Advertisers to make a liberal use of the new means now offered of making announcements known to the public.
Placards, according to the taste of Advertisers, may be printed at moderate charges in ENGLISH or any of the NATIVE LANGUAGES at the Bombay Gazette Press. Estimates on application.

RATES.
Boards not exceeding 2 feet long and 2 feet broad Rs. 2 per month. For every additional square foot annas 8.
Thus a firm exhibiting a board, say 4 feet square will have the advantage of having their business advertisement read by thousands of Passengers on one station platform for the trifling monthly expenditure of Rs. 2. Parties advertising on six Stations or more will be allowed a discount of ten per cent. ; on twelve Stations or more twenty-five per cent.
The boards to be delivered at the Bombay Gazette Office, whence they will be sent by the Lessee to the various stations selected by the Advertiser. In the event of the contract terminating, the boards will be brought back to Bombay at the expense and risk of the Advertiser.
Special arrangements for long periods.
For further particulars apply to the Manager, Bombay Gazette Office, Rampart Row, Fort.
